

Singing Through the Darkness

(<https://www.harvest.org/devotions-and-blogs/daily-devotions/2017-10-21>)

But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.—Acts 16:25

The world watches with great interest when a Christian faces adversity. Every one of us faces hardship. Every one of us loses loved ones. Every one of us faces sickness. Every one of us encounters difficulties and hardships in life. But when it happens to Christians, nonbelievers watch to see if our faith is genuine. That is the time to show them what Christ can do, even in hard times.

Acts 16 tells the story of Paul and Silas, who were thrown into prison for preaching the gospel. Their backs had been ripped open with a whip, and at midnight, in the most unsanitary of conditions, in a filthy environment, with their legs stretched apart in shackles causing excruciating pain, Paul and Silas held a worship service. The Bible tells us that “at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God” (verse 25). Suddenly an earthquake shook the prison, their shackles fell off, the walls came down, and they were free to go.

The Philippian jailer, assuming they were free, knew he would be tortured and then put to death. He took out his own sword and was ready to kill himself. But Paul said, “Do yourself no harm, for we are all here” (verse 28).

Then the jailer said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” (verse 30). Paul and Silas made impact on him.

In the same way, there are people watching you right now. They’re developing an opinion about God on the basis of your life. It has been said that a Christian is an epistle, written by God and read by man. You are the only Bible that some people ever will read. They will be looking at you, and that may determine the course their lives will take.

News and Notes

- The next soup kitchen will be November 3. For questions, please visit with Gary.
- If you have a prayer request you would like added please fill out the prayer request card in the pocket of the seat in front of you or email prayer@scottsbluffchurchofchrist.org.

Birthdays

Janie Bechtold	10/09	Chris Stillahn	10/12
Pablo Alfaro Jr	10/14	Lupita Bechtold	10/24
Megan Rudy	10/25	Pablo Alfaro 3	10/30

If you birthday has been inadvertently left off this list please let Shannon know.

Those Serving

10/22/2017

Opening Prayer	Shane
Song Leader	Chris
Scripture Reader	Shane
Closing Prayer	Jeremy
Devotion:	Jay

Announcements: Chris

Table: West	Jay
Center	Gary
East	Shane
Preacher:	Tom
Song Leader:	Tom

10/29/2017

Opening Prayer	Jeremy
Song Leader	Shane
Scripture Reader	Tim
Closing Prayer	Gary
Devotion:	Chris

Announcements: Shane

Table: West	Chris
Center	Shane
East	Tim
Preacher:	Tom
Song Leader:	Shane